Emne: travel to Nantes for John Feb 2015

Vedlegg: image002.jpg

Dear Sarah,

I have found the following flights for John's trip to Nantes in February. They are very cheap so it may be as well to book asap. There is a dinner in the evening on 26th and the meeting will be all day 27th. I do not have more details at the present time.

Thursday 26th February:

1) City Jet

Depart London City airport 0735h

Arrive Nantes 1010

Or

2) Easy jet

Depart Gatwick 1435

Arrive Nantes 1635

Friday 27th February:

City Jet

Depart Nantes 1915h

Arrive London City 1950h

I am not sure what time the meeting will finish. I think it could go on to 6pm but it would be silly to have to stay another night, so I think he would just have to leave a little early.

I have not decided how I will get there yet!

I have reserved the following hotel for myself, it would be good if we stayed in the same hotel so please book this for John if you think it is suitable. If not then let me know and I will suggest something else.
