

Fra: Hordaland Fylkeskommune - Postmottak (HFK@hfk.no)
Sendt: 16.04.2015 12:15:54
Til: Kultur- og idrettsavdelinga - Postmottak
Kopi:

Emne: VS: Påmelding til den 7. nordiske konferansen i kulturpolitikkforskning starter i dag!
 Earlybird-priser frem til 15. mai.

Vedlegg: image001.jpg;image002.jpg;image003.jpg;image005.gif;image006.jpg;image007.jpg

Fra: NCCPR 2015 [mailto:nccpr2015@hit.no]

Sendt: 15. april 2015 13:56

Til: NCCPR 2015

Emne: Påmelding til den 7. nordiske konferansen i kulturpolitikkforskning starter i dag! Earlybird-priser frem til 15. mai.

Welcome to the 7th Nordic Conference on Cultural Policy Research in Bø, Telemark University College, 25. -27. August - 2015.

“Cultural policy between conservation and creation”

Earlybird registration starts today! You will find the registration site here.

For further information, please check our website: NCCPR 2015

NCCPR 2015 key-note speakers:

"A matter of taste: cultural value and inequality"

Key-note speaker: Kate Oakley is Professor of Cultural Policy at the University of Leeds.

Her research interests include the politics of cultural policy, work in the cultural industries, and regional development.

“Church or Museum?: The musealisation of the Church of Sweden 1850-2015”

Dr. Magdalena Hillström, phd, Lektor, Department of Culture Studies, Linköping University.

Hillström specializes in the politics of cultural heritage, history of museums, and on the creation of museums that focus on cultural history in Scandinavia.

Annette Winkelmann
 Koordinator, Senter for kultur- og idrettsstudiar
 Høgskolen i Telemark
 Hallvard Eikas plass
 3800 Bø i Telemark

Tlf: 35952874/ 41509055
E-post: annette.winkelmann@hit.no

Høgskolen i Telemark

www.hit.no

