

The 6th Baltic Sea Region Cultural Heritage Forum

Version 2016-08-16

Preliminary programme

From Postwar to Postmodern – 20th Century Built Cultural Heritage

Kiel 28–30 September 2016

Wednesday September 28th

09.00 Registration

The registration will also be open at the conference venue Tuesday September 27th at 16.00–20.00.

10.00 Opening of the Conference

Professor Claus von Carnap, Host, The Federal State of Schleswig-Holstein, Germany
Anita Bergensträhle-Lind, Chair of Monitoring Group on Cultural Heritage in the Baltic Sea States
Anke Spoorendonk, Minister of Justice, Cultural and European Affairs Schleswig-Holstein, Germany
Lars Amréus, Director General of the Swedish National Heritage Board

10.40 Session I

History and Heritage – Postwar 20th Century Built Cultural Heritage in the Baltic Sea Region

Keynote speech 1, Whose happiness is better? The architecture of industrial societies around the Baltic Sea
Professor Mart Kalm, Rector of Estonian Academy of Arts

Keynote speech 2, Restorations and Reconstructions: Reflections from Berlin
Architect Sir David Chipperfield, David Chipperfield Architects, UK

12.30 Lunch

13.30 Session I continuation

The Role of Cultural Heritage and the Use of History in the 20th Century Baltic Sea Region
Professor Peter Aronsson, Linnaeus University, Sweden

Long Life of the Socialist Modernism in the Baltic States (Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia)
Doc. dr. Marija Dremaitė, University of Vilnius, Lithuania

Polish Postwar Architectural Heritage as record of Political, Social and Economic Change
Professor Małgorzata Rozbicka, Head of National Heritage Board, Poland

Lost Cultural Heritage: The Aftermath of the Bombing of the Government Quarter in Oslo and the Need for Collective Memory
Professor Siri Skjold Lexau, University of Bergen, Norway

Final discussion with moderator Professor Mart Kalm

16.00 Coffee

16.30 Parallel sessions relating to Session I

Rebranding of Soviet regime Built Cultural Heritage
Dr. Arch. Jānis Lejnietis, Latvia

Difficult Heritage: Various Approaches to the 20th Century Totalitarian Architecture
PhD Håkan Hökerberg, The Swedish Institute in Rome, Sweden

17.15 End of Day 1

19.00 Conference dinner at Alter Güterbahnhof

The 6th Baltic Sea Region Cultural Heritage Forum

Thursday September 29th

09.00 Introduction

Professor Claus von Carnap, Host, The Federal State of Schleswig-Holstein, Germany

09.05 Session II

Demolition, preservation or adaptive re-use? Contemporary challenges for Postwar 20th Century Built Cultural Heritage

Keynote speech 3, Heritage for the Masses. About Modern Icons & Everyday Modernism, Historic Value and a Sustainable Future
Professor and architect Wessel de Jonge, Wessel de Jonge Architecten BNA B.V., Netherlands

Postwar 20th Century Built Cultural Heritage as Means of Sustainable Development
Senior Advisor Alexandra Warr, English Heritage/Historic England, UK

10.30 Coffee

11.00 Session II continuation

Modern and Contemporary Urbanisms

Professor Panu Lehtovuori, Tampere University of Technology, Finland

The Values of Heritage: A New Paradigm for the 21st Century

Architect and planner Dennis Rodwell, UK

Final discussion with moderator Senior Advisor Alexandra Warr

12.30 Lunch

13.30 Parallel sessions relating to Session II and III

Creative Destruction or Destructive Creativity? Negotiating the Heritage of the Cold War in the Experience Economy
PhD Per Strömberg, Uppsala University, Sweden, and University College of Southeast Norway

Protection of Postwar Architectural Heritage in Poland – Current Situation and Prospects
PhD Andrzej Siwek, National Heritage Board, Poland

A Contemporary Approach to Assessment and Prioritisation of Cultural Heritage
Senior Advisor Cissela Génètay and Ulf Lindberg, Swedish National Heritage Board

Policy Making: Preservation Methodologies for the 20th Century Heritage in Helsinki
Architect Riitta Salastie, City Planning Department, Finland

14.30 Session III

Management of the Postwar and Postmodern Built Cultural Heritage

Keynote speaker 4, Moving on: Approaches and Frameworks for Conserving the Heritage of the Postwar Era and Beyond
Head Field Projects Susan Macdonald, The Getty Conservation Institute, USA

Between Rejection and Adaption. European Heritage Surveys and the Listing of Buildings 1950–1990
Dipl. Ing. Katja Hasche and Dr. des. Torben Kiepke Bauhaus University, Weimar, Germany

16.05 Coffee

16.30 Session III continuation

What about the Art? Challenges of Authenticity and Preservation of Art related to Buildings and Architecture
Conservator Karin Hermerén, University of Gothenburg, Sweden

Final discussion with moderator Architect and City-planner Nilsson Samuelsson, Dresden, Germany

17.30 Conclusion and final statement

Lars Amréus, Director General of the Swedish National Heritage Board

18.00 End of Day 2 – Smaller reception at the Maritime Museum (Schiffahrtsmuseum Fischhalle)

The 6th Baltic Sea Region Cultural Heritage Forum

Friday September 30th

Choose between two different excursions

09.00 Excursion alternative 1:

Architecture and horticulture. Current heritage conservation in the Kurpark Malente (1964–1968) (guided by Dr. Margita M. Meyer).

Read more: <http://www.kiel-heritage-forum-2016.eu/excursions/excursion-i/>

Meeting point: Will be announced later on.

10.00 Excursion alternative 2:

Modernism meets History. Reconstruction of the Historical City Centre of Kiel and New Buildings of Olympiazentrum Schilksee 1972 (guided by Bastian Müller).

Read more: <http://www.kiel-heritage-forum-2016.eu/excursions/excursion-ii/>

Meeting Point: Alter Markt, Kiel, nearby Nicolaichurch and the Roland-Statue.

13.00 End of excursions and of conference

During the conference the following exhibitions will be displayed:

Glimpses of Maritime Heritage – modern and ancient. Elements of modern 20th century underwater cultural heritage and maritime landscapes.

The regional Working group on Underwater Cultural Heritage

People and possibilities – a photo exhibition showing how cultural cooperation can create new economic and social possibilities for people and organisations across Europe.

Norwegian Directorate for Cultural Heritage & Arts Council Norway

During the conference a non-stop show of short films will be shown:

The coastal heritage around the Baltic Sea

The regional Working group on Coastal Heritage

Conference website: <http://www.kiel-heritage-forum-2016.eu/>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/frompostwartopostmodern/>

Twitter: #20thheritage