

Subject: Confirmation of publishing

Bergen 30.08.2016

To whom it may concern,

Coda Press hereby states that Kobie Nel is officially included in the upcoming editions to our program. The upcoming work by Nel, 'Black Lake Monologue' is regarded as a high quality text work and a valuable contribution to Coda's expanding catalogue of artist's focusing on text based art works as part of their multi faceted practices.

Coda is a small, newly established press based in Bergen, Norway and is founded by editor and creative director, Scott Elliott. It is a platform for producing artist books and text based artworks as editions. Recent commissioned works are from artists Johanna Balet Lettmeyer, Lasse Årikstad and Bruno Silva.

Sincerely,
Scott Elliott

0047 980 66 662
skottelliott@gmail.com