Invitation to the Satellite Meeting, August 16-17, 2017 World Library and Information Congress: 83rd IFLA General Conference and Assembly). Venue: Bergen Public Library, Bergen, Norway

Dear Mrs. Liudmila Zaytseva

It is with great pleasure that the Marketing & Management Section and the Public Libraries Section of IFLA, in collaboration with Hordaland County Library and Bergen Public Library, invite you to a two-day satellite meeting taking place at the Bergen Public Library, for a conference relating to Managing Change: Library Transitions – moving into the future. Best practices from around the world. The event will be followed by the Meeting of the World Library and Information Congress: 83rd IFLA General Conference and Assembly.

At this satellite meeting, approximately 150 participants are expected and over 35 papers will be presented. Your participation in the discussions will certainly contribute to the success of this meeting.

Our limited financial resources do not permit us to make a contribution to the cost of your attendance, and we would like to point out that this invitation does not imply any legal obligations on the part of IFLA. It is your responsibility to ensure that you have appropriate insurance cover.

Requirements for entry into Norway differ from country to country and are subject to change, and each application for a visa will be considered on its own merits. Every letter of Invitation is signed using an electronic signature. Please consider this as a valid document originating from the International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions (IFLA) Marketing & Management Section.

We look forward to welcoming you to Bergen, Norway!

Yours sincerely, on behalf of the organizing committee
